The Honorable Jeff Bingaman
703 SHOB
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Bingaman,

Thank you very much for co-signing the Bingaman-Murray letter to President Bush opposing Medicaid cuts and capping or otherwise ending the Medicaid entitlement.

We deeply appreciate your support for this program that is so vitally important to America's lowest income and most vulnerable citizens, including over a million senior citizens in nursing homes and many others receiving assistance in the home.

We understand that the Federal budget faces enormous pressures, but we appreciate your willingness to oppose deep cuts in essential services to the sickest and lowest income in our society.

Dear Senator Clinton

Thank you very much for co-signing the Bingaman-Murray letter to President Bush opposing Medicaid cuts and capping or otherwise ending the Medicaid entitlement.

We deeply appreciate your support for this program that is so vitally important to America's lowest income and most vulnerable citizens, including over a million senior citizens in nursing homes and many others receiving assistance in the home.

We understand that the Federal budget faces enormous pressures, but we appreciate your willingness to oppose deep cuts in essential services to the sickest and lowest income in our society.

Thank you very much for co-signing the Bingaman-Murray letter to President Bush opposing Medicaid cuts and capping or otherwise ending the Medicaid entitlement.

We deeply appreciate your support for this program that is so vitally important to America's lowest income and most vulnerable citizens, including over a million senior citizens in nursing homes and many others receiving assistance in the home.

We understand that the Federal budget faces enormous pressures, but we appreciate your willingness to oppose deep cuts in essential services to the sickest and lowest income in our society.

Sincerely,
